

Mayor Rob Arace

Disposal of pizza boxes, I spoke with our public works department and they said pizza boxes can be put in the recycling as long as there is no food on it. They mentioned that grease is okay but any food remnants will keep them from picking up. I hope this helps! If you need more details on recycling you can always call our public works office.